Vocare: Vocare, meaning “to call” in Latin, is an extensive program where juniors assess, explore, and evaluate their gifts and talents prior to navigating the college application process. A dedicated counselor guides students through a comprehensive process where they take personality and aptitude assessments, define areas of interest, establish meaningful goals, and connect with community professionals.

J-Term: J-Term is an opportunity for students to immerse themselves in topics of their choosing, engaging with faculty and peers in deep exploration that expands upon the traditional classroom structure. Offerings include international travel, domestic missions, on and off campus learning intensives, internships, and local service opportunities.
