

THE FUTURE AWAITS

Whitefield Academy hosted the class of 2018 graduation ceremony last month

- Staff reports
- Jun 22, 2018

Senior class President Michael McCarthy leads the Class of 2018 as they prepare to turn their tassels.

- Courtesy of Whitefield

Commencement speaker Dan Cathy, CEO of Chick-fil-A, passes a baton to Nicholas Harris. Cathy used the metaphor of the baton to encourage graduates to take firm hold of their own futures, just as they would the baton in a relay, and not wait passively for life to happen.

- Courtesy of Whitefield

Whitefield Academy hosted the class of 2018 graduation ceremony at the Church of the Apostles in Buckhead last month, graduating 59 seniors. The Class of 2018 will attend a combined 46 different colleges this fall, at a variety of schools around the country, including: Baylor, Brown, NYU, Vanderbilt, Syracuse, Savannah College of Art and Design, Howard, Alabama, Auburn, UGA, Georgia Tech and Miami.

Seven graduates will compete in college athletics at their chosen schools.