

Whitefield Academy/Special

Whitefield Academy's Drum Major Paige Bauer competes in the Lafayette Marching Classic held at Fayette County High School on Oct. 25.

Whitefield Academy, a Christ-centered Christian school in Smyrna, is celebrating the performance of the WolfPack Marching Band at the Lafayette Marching Classic held at Fayette County High School on Oct. 25.

Led by Drum Major Paige Bauer, the marching band earned 1st place awards in the Single A competition, with their music and marching, Drum Major, Color Guard and Drum Line all receiving top honors.

“Our senior leaders and every individual contributor performed with tremendous heart as we sought to honor the Lord and praise Him,” said Stacy Quiros, the Director of Bands at Whitefield Academy since its inception in 1997. “We are incredibly proud of these students and the way they represent Whitefield Academy through their music and teamwork.”

At Whitefield, arts education begins in PreK and continues through grade 12. The school hosts over 75 fine arts events annually and offers an extensive range of programs, including Marching Band, Drum Line, Pep Band, Concert Band, Jazz Band, Chamber Orchestra, Show Choir, Chorus, a Student Art Show, plays, musicals and a Lower School Chorale. With 28 Fine Arts courses, including select AP offerings, students have opportunities to develop their creative gifts.

Members of the public are invited to attend Whitefield’s upcoming fall musical, “Oliver!,” with performances scheduled for 7 p.m. on Nov. 12-13 and 2 and 7 p.m. on Nov. 15. Tickets are available for purchase at whitefieldacademy.com.